

ISRAELIS VS PALESTINIANS

Fearing an Egyptian invasion, Israel attacked this area and began the confrontation against an Arab coalition made up of Egypt, Syria, Iraq and Jordan, conquering the Palestinian territories of Gaza and the West Bank during the war.

On the one hand, the Palestinian people defend that the Israelis are robbing them of most of their territories. They also argue that Gaza is Palestine and not Israel. In addition, the Palestinians do not have as much money as the Israelis. From their point of view, I think they feel very bad because they are taking their territories that are not only their territories. It is also their culture, their religion, and especially their identity, the place where they have lived all their life. This means that for many people they are and are taking a part of them.

On the other hand, the Israeli people argue that they need this territory as they have gone through a war where the Nazis killed 6 million Jews. They needed to create a border so that terrorists would not cross it. From my point of view, I think the Israelis felt they needed land because having lost a lot of Jews, they had also lost a lot of land.

From my point of view, on the one hand I am in favor of the Palestinians as it is their land. An invasion of the Israelis can make them lose their identity. Also, because the Israelis have a lot of money and can afford all the luxuries they want while the Palestinians economically do not have as much and if the invaders can end up ruined. On the other hand, I also understand the Israelis because they needed land.
